As a village we are a community defined as; a group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common - the condition of sharing or having certain attitudes and interests in common - I think it also encompasses doing what we can for the local environment and each other. The land owners do their part by their land stewardship, the Parish Council looks after the structure of the village on our behalf, volunteers - thank you very much - look after our Greens, the War Memorial, common spaces etc. we all can look after the wildlife we find in and encourage to our gardens and the Community Council helps with our social cohesion. So it's really good to see the start of the Community Councils programme for this year there have been one or two changes to events they would have liked to hold but it was felt it's just a little too early yet but the programme is underway with a Midsummer walk on the 26th June followed by the Sale Trail on the 4th July. I do hope you will support them.

So welcome back Cockfield - there may be one or two hiccups on the way but it looks like planning can start in earnest once again. Talking of planning the Schedule for the Village Show is in the centre pages, there are craft and photography classes as well as the baking, flowers and vegetable ones along with children's classes, - something for everyone as they say - do enter its fun!

And brilliantly the Cockfield Coffee Morning is back on the 4th Thursday of the month in the village hall committee room well done to the WI, I have certainly missed the cake!

Jeffreys Green, Cockfield – Update May 2021

As I write this update SEH French are busy preparing the site for completion and handover of the affordable properties. And by the time you read this most of the properties will be occupied – providing quality new homes to local people.

This is great news and a significant achievement given the challenge of the pandemic.

We wish the new residents much happiness in their new homes.

All rented properties have been allocated but there are some shared ownership homes still available.

If you're interested in becoming a shared owner at Jeffreys Green please contact Sandra Scott or Karen Suddes, Orwell's Sales Team, on 07749 417399 or at homesales@orwell-housing.co.uk.

There will continue to be construction activity at Jeffreys Green as SEH carry on with the construction of three bungalows on behalf of Mid Suffolk District Council.

These homes are progressing well and will be completed later in the year. Allocations will be made via Gateway to Homechoice, and I will provide more information on the timescales for the adverts and bids at a later date.

I am also pleased to advise the SEH will shortly be commencing the construction of the first 11 market sale homes being developed by Orwell Homes, the private sale subsidiary of Orwell Housing.

These plots will be a selection of 2, 3 & 4 bedroom houses and 2 bedroom bungalows.

Prices are not yet released but should you wish to register an interest please contact Sandra Scott or Karen Suddes, Orwell's Sales Team, on 07749 417399 or at homesales@orwell-housing.co.uk. They will be able to take your details and contact you when more information is available.

Thank you and stay safe

Interesting background to the Porch flowers in the Church

After WW1 a house-to-house collection in the village only raised just enough money (about £120 I believe) to pay for the memorial cross at the bottom of Church Lane. There was concern at the time that there was not enough money to put any sort of memorial in the church as well and so it was agreed that flowers would be placed in the niche in the porch (technically a holy water stoup used in the days when we were all Roman Catholics) each week, to commemorate those who had died in the war, and originally there was a small frame with all the names listed, which has long since disappeared.

Thanks to a Heritage Grant in 2014 we were finally able to commission a memorial plaque, now on the wall in the north aisle, but, as old customs die hard, we continue to remember them by placing flowers in the porch each week.

There is, among the church records, a used receipt book with the counterfoils showing that in one family every child gave 1d (pre-decimal) for which each received their own, beautifully written, receipt. And a penny would have probably been more than a week's pocket money in those days!

GH

he flowers placed here each week are in memory of the men and women from Cockfield whose lives were lost in the two World Wars.

Dear Green Link readers,

Last month, FOCSA set a fitness challenge for the children so we could raise money for our playground project. As a result of a phenomenal effort, we are receiving over £2300 from FOCSA towards the cost of new playground markings. I hope to send you a picture next month of the completed work. A massive thank you to all the children who took part, cycling, running, walking etc and all their sponsors.

From Miss Fairless in Lime Class - As our topic this half term is On the Farm, Lime class had a visit from a local farmer and his tractor! The children had prepared questions that they would like to ask him. He was very informative and we learnt a lot about farming in the local area.

"The farmer grows peas and potatoes. He also grows maize and wheat. He also grows sugar beet and linseed." – Stanley "The farmer has 12 tractors. He also has 379 fields." – Chloe.

"They use a tractor to get the soil ready for the seeds." – Ella "They have horses and cattle on the farm." - Declan

Twelve members of Birch Class had the chance to take part in Bikeability this month; you may have seen them out and about practising their road skills. Jess said it was fun, Alfie B said it was great to learn new things and know how to ride safely. Kayley learned how to make the correct hand signals and Reubyn felt more confident. They have all been out on the road with their bikes since and parents feel reassured.

As a school we are all being Climate Heroes at present, aiming to get our Green Blue Peter badge! Each child has made three pledges relating to saving Power, (saving carbon emissions), Plastic and Plants. Some are changing lunch habits such as using a reusable wrapper for packed lunches rather than food wrap/ cling film or foil. Some have chosen to eat more vegetarian meals at school. Others are turning off the tablet/TV and spending an extra 30 minutes outside and others have been turning off the tap when they brush their teeth. In addition, we have all made a class pledge around saving power or recycling and we will let you know if we are successful in our challenges and get our Blue Peter badge.

Best wishes,
Mrs Harkin

Garden Tips for June 2021

Flowers & Grasses

- Once the leaves of snowdrops and bluebells have started to go yellow you can lift and divide the clumps.
- Fuchsias – Pinch out the tips to promote a bushy habit. This will also encourage the production of more flowers.
- Regularly dead head your repeat flowering roses.
- Once you have hardened off (this means moving plants outdoors for a portion of the day to get them acclimatised to different amounts of light, air and in particular night time temperatures) you should now be able to move hanging baskets and containers out of the greenhouse to their final positions in the garden.
- Don't forget to water hanging baskets and container grown plants either first thing in the morning or in the evening. Depending on the weather you may have to water hanging baskets twice a day.
- Sweet Peas – pick as soon as they flower to encourage the plant to produce more blooms.
- Once Oriental poppies have finished flowering cut the foliage back to ground level. They will soon recover and produce a fresh mound of foliage.
- Towards the end of the month you can also re-invigorate Hardy Geraniums by trimming back to encourage new foliage and flowers. 'Roxanne' is a particularly long flowering variety with bright blue flowers.
- Make sure all tall plants such as Delphiniums, Sunflowers are fully supported. Also stake and tie in Dahlias as they grow.
- Cut back Pulmonarias and feed with a slow release fertilisers. You can also divide congested clumps and replant now.

- Divide and replant primulas, primroses, polyanthus and cowslips.
- Keep on top of weeding your borders.
- Consider Ornamental grasses for dry areas of the garden and for use in containers with summer bedding.

Fruit and Vegetables

- Tomatoes – Pinch out the side shoots of your tomato plants. Lightly spray the tomato flowers with water this will help the fruit to set. Start to feed once the first truss is setting fruit.
- Plant outdoor tomatoes.
- Harvest salad crops and sow seeds every fortnight to ensure a continuous supply of leaves
- First early potatoes should be ready for harvesting. Nothing quite like home grown potatoes with lashings of butter.
- You can plant out squashes and sweetcorn once they have been hardened off.
- If you haven't done so already make sure you protect soft fruits from the birds and wildlife with appropriate netting.
- If you are growing soft fruits in containers they will benefit from a high potash liquid feed.

- If you grow blueberries in containers make sure you only water with rainwater.
- Once the leaves turn yellow and start to die back on your onion and garlic that's the time to start harvesting.

Trees, Shrubs & Climbers

- Midsummer is a good time to prune back deciduous Magnolias when they are in full leaf.
- Remove any reverted green shoots on evergreen shrubs such as Elaeagnus and Euonymus to prevent the whole shrub losing variegation.
- If summer rainfall is scarce then I would delay planting any containerised trees or shrubs until autumn.
- Viburnum Tinus can still be trimmed back this month
- Don't forget to tie in twining climbers like honeysuckle and summer flowering clematis to their supports.
- Tie in climbing and rambling roses as near to horizontal as possible. This restricts sap flow and causes more side shoots to grow along the length of the stem. This will result in the production of more flowers.

Lawns

- You can still apply a lawn fertiliser if you didn't get round to it in May.
- It's a good idea to spike the lawn in hot weather this will enable any rain to penetrate down to the roots.
- If weather has been very dry raise the blades on the mower to reduce stress on the grass.
- During prolonged periods of dry weather water established lawns and especially any newly seeded or turfed lawns.
- Re-cut lawn edges or install lawn edging available from garden centres/hardware stores to assist with future maintenance.

General Maintenance and planning

- Weeds will be growing at an alarming rate. I try and wander out in to the garden preferably on a daily basis to nip off dandelion and daisy flowers before they have a chance to set seed and takeover completely.
- Check plants in greenhouse daily and water if the soil/compost dry.
- Don't forget to keep the greenhouse well ventilated and shaded in hot weather. In the evening I use my watering can fixed with a rose to spray the base of the greenhouse with water. This helps deter red spider mite.
- Keep bird baths topped up in hot weather.
- Turn compost heaps every month to keep well aerated.

Hopefully by the time you read this we will be close to all Covid restrictions being lifted. Happy Days for all of us.

Enjoy your gardens.

COCKFIELD MINIBUS

and Lockdown Rules

As you will be aware, the final stage of lockdown easing takes place ‘not earlier than’ Monday June 21st. So for the June screening on Friday 25th we can at least plan for a near normal resumption of the cinema at full capacity.

This will mean no more pre-booking – just turn up – and we will offer refreshments, the bar, and a raffle in the interval. The official description of the June 21st milestone currently states ‘the government hopes to be in a position to remove all legal limits on social contact’, but it is quite possible that the guidelines on hands, face and space will still apply. Also we will not know until nearer the time what the official guidance on village hall usage will be and whether any restrictions will still be in force.

All this means that our desire to return to as near normal as possible is dependent on a number of factors. As new information emerges we will keep you informed via the website and our community broadcasts. If necessary we may have to retain pre-booking and reduced capacity.

The Cinema Team

Cockfield W.I.

Another spell of unpredictable weather has scuppered plans for holding mini outdoor meetings. In the meantime we have continued to hold both monthly and committee meetings via Zoom.

We are looking forward to our Live Garden Meeting on 3rd of June hosted by Sue Cole and husband Jeremy. If all restrictions are lifted from the 21st June we shall be back in the Village Hall for our 1st July Annual Meeting. Several members have booked observer tickets for the NFWI Virtual Annual Meeting on Tuesday 8th June with guest speakers HRH The Countess of Wessex, Commissioner of Police Dame Cressida Dick and Rt Hon the Baroness Hale of Richmond.

Members have expressed interest in attending a summer production of Shakespeare's comedy All's Well That Ends Well performed by Durham University's Castle Theatre Company on Saturday 10th July at Park Farm. Tickets are also available for a Ritz Afternoon Tea at the Guildhall on Tuesday 10 August.

Let's hope June brings warm, sunny weather so that we can enjoy outdoor gatherings again.

Birds Need Water to drink and to Bath in Birds need a fresh source of water for drinking and bathing, this can be provided in the form of a bird bath or a simple dish of water. Ponds also provide a great source of water and will attract many birds.

Providing water is especially important in the winter when freezing conditions can mean ponds, puddles and other water sources freeze over and really important in the summer when hot, dry weather can make water hard to find.

Many plants provide a natural food source for birds, plants have berries, fruit and seeds.

A log pile in a shady spot and a compost heap will encourage insects which will in turn provide good hunting grounds for birds that feast on insects. See if you can encourage more birds to the garden where you live by putting out some water and maybe making a log pile.

June's Advice Column

I recently become a carer for my partner who I live with and can no longer work. We've started falling behind on our bills and I'm worried our debts are only going to get worse. I'm on Carer's Allowance but what else can I do to turn things around?

A change in circumstances can often trigger financial problems. It's good to see you taking action now as this will stop you from sliding into further debt.

See if you can make any savings on your household bills by switching suppliers or changing deals. You may be able to get a reduction on your council tax bill - speak to your local authority directly.

Try to boost your income too. You may be able to apply for benefits jointly with your partner to be paid alongside Carers Allowance. This could be Income Support, income-related Employment Support Allowance or Universal Credit.

You should contact your creditors and ask if you can reduce your repayments until you're back in work. They can also freeze any interest and charges, so your debts don't go up while you pay less. Check to see if you have payment protection insurance to cover giving up work to become a carer as well.

If you're still struggling to cover your outgoings, it's important to prioritise paying your household bills like your council tax and rent or mortgage.

For further help working out your budget, negotiating with creditors or checking which benefits you're entitled to, contact Sudbury & District Citizens Advice. We are providing advice by telephone and email, Monday – Thursday, 10am – 1pm. Please phone 01787 321400 if you need advice and leave a message and someone will call you back when available. We will attempt three times to call you back, so please expect a call from a withheld number.

You can also ring our Advice line on Freephone 0808 278 7868 or 0800 144 88 48.

Passwords

It's another password reminder I'm afraid. I've helped 3 households in the recent past with some computer problems, and in none of those cases did they know their email password! It's convenient of course that once you are authenticated with your email system, your web browser or email program will remember your credentials so you don't need to provide a password each time. The downside is that when you do need the password, you last used it say 2 years ago and can't remember if or where it was written down. Password recovery can sometimes be fiddly and time consuming; sometimes it involves knowing the answer to up to 3 security questions which also have been forgotten! Then it gets really tricky.

So ask yourself if right now you were required to enter your email password, would you know it? Write it down in a notebook somewhere, keep it safe at home away from your computer area and don't use the same password on multiple websites. A password consisting of 3 words such as coffeebluefish is much stronger than using e.g. a grandchild's name.

Scams

I'm often sent examples of scams. I generally don't pass them on unless they are something new, something more insidious and / or which are currently sneaking past the usual traps. Usually the scam is not new, it's just new to the individual reporting it. Many scams repeat over time, just with some variations to appear different. As individual users all we can do is take the basic precautions which I'll re-state:

- Buy, install and keep up to date any of the commonly sold internet security anti-virus products
- Don't use the same password on multiple sites, especially financial ones.

- If a suspicious looking email appears in your inbox as opposed to being trapped by your email filter, don't click on any links it contains.
- No reputable organisation will ever ask you to provide personal information, passwords, or account details via an email. Nor will they remove or lock your account if you don't provide some information via email.
- If in doubt, go onto the website of the company in question and contact their customer services to check the authenticity of an email (or phone call, or text message)
- Fake text messages are less common but on the increase. The same principles of vigilance apply, especially for unsolicited texts and phone calls.

WhatsApp Users Read On

I'm not sure when this change happened but WhatsApp have altered the default setting for joining a group. It is currently set to Everyone which means that anyone can add you to a group. Such a group could be on a topic you definitely don't want to be part of, or to promote a product or a scam service of some kind. Whilst you can leave a group, you may not want to be part of a group on some subject that you didn't sign up for.

You can alter the setting to grant only those in your Contacts permission to add you to a group. To make this change open WhatsApp, then tap Settings / Account / Privacy / Groups and change the setting from Everyone to My Contacts.

Community Council 2021 Programme

The following is a summary of the Community Council Programme for 2021, the first version of which was published last month. We would like you please to mark these events in your diaries. In each case you will find further information in this and future issues of Green Links, on the village website, and via community broadcasts.

We are acutely aware that as we go to press there is concern about Covid variants and the potential impact on the government plans to ease lockdown on June 21st. Our event plans are based on what we know at the time. If the government rules change and / or relevant local regulations change, we will of course adapt the event plans accordingly and communicate the changes through our usual channels. Safety is and will remain our primary concern.

Cockfield Cinema – Friday June 25th

The film for June will be 23 Walks, starring Alison Steadman. We hope, but cannot yet confirm, it will be the full return of the cinema as we know it.

Midsummer Walk – Saturday June 26th

The midsummer walk will be a guided event, starting at 10.30 from the village hall with refreshments to follow.

We hope that this will become a monthly fixture.

We had planned a big mid-summer celebration for all the family to include a picnic, some catered food and live music. We have decided to postpone this event for 2 key reasons: the concern over the possible change to easing of lockdown restrictions and secondly the non-availability of the pavilion due to repair and refurbishment works. A new date for this event will be announced in due course.

Sale Trail – Sunday July 4th

This is a great opportunity for you to get rid of those unwanted items you've accumulated and to raise some money for yourselves and the Community Council. You set up your stall at the front of your property and we provide a map showing where you are, You need to register to be a seller.

Cockfield Show – Sunday September 12th

Back in the Village Hall, this year's Show will incorporate the best of last year's virtual show with photographic classes showing gardens and projects at their best through the year.

Speed Quizzing

This will be similar to the monthly virtual SpeedQuizzes that have been taking place during lockdown, but with added features and with all the teams competing in the village hall.

We don't know yet what this event will look like, we just know we want to do something! For now, put the date in your diary.

We always welcome your suggestions for community activities. Please send these suggestions, plus any comments or feedback, to community.council@cockfield.org.uk.

Most of our activities require expenditure of some kind. To support this and to give us headroom to plan future events, we raise funds through tickets sales, refreshments, raffles and so on. As a registered charity we also welcome donations of any amount. Recently the Post Office have introduced a scheme where they will match charitable donations up to the value of £200. Should you wish to make a donation, please contact Barbara at the Post Office for details.

Dear Friends,

As I write this we are facing another period of uncertainty around the 'roadmap' to coming out of lockdown. Who knows, by the time that you read this, we might be facing some further restrictions, or even a delay to all restrictions being lifted.

However, I am looking on the positive side and hoping that all the events that are being planned across the benefice will take place and that we will be able to shake hands once again or embrace those we have been separated from for so long.

One of those events is our annual Summer Lunch in aid of St Peter's here in Cockfield on 17 July. We are hoping to hold this at the Old Rectory, and am grateful to Jennie and David Marshall for lending us their garden this year. I am looking forward to meeting many of you there.

I am also looking forward to the ordinations at St Edmundsbury Cathedral, when our own Rev Richard Stainer will be ordained a priest. Richard has been in training for a couple of years for this moment, and prayers for him and Christine his wife will be much appreciated. The ordination takes place on Sunday 4 July.

We will be opening all our churches across the benefice for services in June, so I look forward to seeing you at a service sometime soon.

With every good wish in the best month of the year – when the roses bloom and the days are long!

Yours in Christ,

Sharon

Congregational Church Corner

Growing up in Devon, June was the month that brought with it the familiar smells, sights and sounds of haymaking in the fields around the village. Of particular interest to me was the fields bordering our back garden hedge. Many a happy hour was spent sat on top of that hedge watching those same fields cut, same farmers cutting, turning and making bales of the hay. Same people helping to lift bales onto the trailer and taking them to be stored in the various barns. Today a number of those fields surrounding the village and more particularly one of the fields I used to be so interested in are no longer agricultural land but are covered by new houses as the population has more than doubled since those days in the past. Actually both the fields and the farming have changed never to be the same again. Change of all kinds of course happens every day. Fashions change. Business changes. Places change. People change too. On occasions they change in completely unexpected ways. You think you know them well, but all of a sudden they do something uncharacteristic. People change their looks, their moods, their habits, even their view of the world. From one day to the next, the whole world itself is a little bit different. The ancient Greek philosopher Heraditus (fifth century BC) claimed it was impossible to step into the same stream twice. His point was that by the time you climb up on the bank and step back into the stream again, it is no longer the same stream. Its ripples, eddies and currents have changed. Life is an endless stream of constant flux.

There is only One who does not change. The God of heaven and earth is like a granite boulder in the middle of the Rapids. While all around is swirling change, he is unchanged and unchanging. And unlike the boulder in the Rapids, God does not get eroded. "Trust in the Lord for ever, for the Lord, the Lord is the Rock eternal " ISAIAH 26v4. I leave you with the words of a man called A W PINK written a number of years ago concerning God, "He cannot change for the better, for He is already perfect, and being perfect, He cannot change for the worse. Altogether unaffected by everthing outside Himself, improvement or deterioration is impossible. He is perpetually the same. "
